The table shows tuition fees for one year of study.

Slovenian citizens, citizens of the European Union and foreign citizens of countries with which the Republic of Slovenia has concluded bilateral agreements in the field of education (Bosnia and Herzegovina, Montenegro, Kosovo, North Macedonia and Serbia) do not pay tuition fees for full-time studies in concessionary undergraduate and master's study programmes (marked with ). Citizens of the following non-EU countries: Norway, Iceland, Liechtenstein and Switzerland, are treated equally as citizens of the Republic of Slovenia and the European Union.

Citizens of the Republic of Slovenia, citizens of EU member states and citizens of countries with which the Republic of Slovenia has signed international agreements on exemption from tuition fees are charged tuition fees for full-time studies if they have already achieved an education that corresponds at least to the level of education obtained in the study programme in which they are enrolled, or if they have not yet achieved an education that corresponds to the level of education obtained in the study programme and have already exercised the right from the second or third indent of the first paragraph of Article 111 of the Higher Education Act (ZViS-1), unless they enrol in a higher year than they were already enrolled in at the same level of study.

A person whose student status has been terminated due to withdrawal from a study programme or major may re-enrol in this study programme or major once. Tuition fees are charged for the studies referred to in the previous sentence.

For students who enrol in a higher year of study or repeat a year, tuition fees apply as they applied when they first enrolled in the programme.

Tuition fees can be paid in two equal installments, namely:

- the first installment upon enrollment,
- the second no later than January 31st.
