Community Kitchen

The Community Kitchen is intended for bringing residents together over food and discovering new culinary traditions. We will serve an international three-course menu prepared with the help of students from the Biotechnical School Nova Gorica.

Solidarity Market

At the Solidarity Market, you can exchange clothes, furniture, tools, artworks, dishes, flower pots, seedlings, seeds, and service and doing so promote circular economy in the local community. Goriški Cekin — a local currency for exchanging services among residents will be presented on the day. No registration needed. More information: chs@ung.si.
